KENTON COUNTY HOSTS FINAL OPEN HOUSE FOR PRE-DESIGN PROCESS FOR NEW KENTON COUNTY ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

COVINGTON, Ky. (May 31, 2017) – Kenton County is hosting an Open House to gather feedback during the final step of the pre-design decision process for the new administration building. The Open House will be held on Wednesday, June 21st, at Covington Latin from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

The County is encouraging the public to provide feedback on the Preferred Alternative and Alternative Concept design/build proposals. As the Court begins contract negotiations for the Preferred Alternative, the feedback will be utilized as the project moves forward.

“Since both design/build proposals are the property of Kenton County, we want the public to view both of them and offer feedback,” said Judge/Executive Kris Knochelmann. “There may be a component of one of the proposals that our residents feel is important. We want to know what they think.”

Residents are encouraged to visit the “New Kenton County Administration Building Project” section on the Kenton County website at <http://bit.ly/KCAdminBuildingProject> to learn more about the new administration building project.

The Open House will be at Covington Latin School, 21 East 11th Street, Covington, KY 41011, on Wednesday, June 21st, from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. Attendees will be able to learn more about the Preferred Alternative and Alternative Concept and submit their feedback.

For any questions about the website or Open House, please contact Kenton County’s Digital Communications Coordinator Sara Sgantas at Sara.Sgantas@KentonCounty.org.
