

AGREEMENT IN LIEU OF TAXES

This Agreement is made effective as of the ____ day of _____, 2020, by and among the City of Covington, Kentucky (the “City”), the County of Kenton, Kentucky (the “County”), the Covington Independent School District (the "School District"), and Monarch, LLC (the “Developer”):

WITNESSETH

WHEREAS, the Developer owns the property commonly known as the Monarch Building, located at 103-113 E. 4th St., Covington, KY 41011, Kenton County PID No. 054-23-11-002.00 and 054-23-11-003.00, as is more particularly described in Exhibit A, attached hereto (“Property”), and plans to renovate and rehabilitate the Property as a commercial office space with approximately 30,000 rentable square feet (“Project”)

WHEREAS, the City has determined that the Project will stimulate economic development by:

1. Restoring and preserving an historic building in the City’s urban core,
2. Removing a blighted structure that detracts from the local community and architectural significance of the surrounding area,
3. Adding new state of the art building on a blighted lot,
4. Improving property values,
5. Significantly increasing rental rates in the urban core which will incent further development of commercial office space,
6. Bringing more than seventy-two (72) jobs to Covington with average salaries in excess of $100,000 per annum,
7. Stimulating economic activity at nearby existing businesses through increased spending,

Contributing to the shift from residential developments to commercial developments in the City; and

WHEREAS, the City intends to issue Industrial Building Revenue Bonds (the "Bonds") to finance the construction of the Project and in conjunction therewith proposes to enter into this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the County and School District are interested in promoting economic development and employment opportunities within its boundaries and are willing to assist the City and the Developer in their efforts provided adequate payments in lieu of taxes are provided for; and

WHEREAS, the Developer and the City have entered (or will enter) into a development agreement, for the City to authorize, issue, and sell the Bonds in the aggregate amount not to exceed $_____pursuant to KRS 103.200 through 103.285, to finance the construction of the Project; and

WHEREAS, the economic incentive to the Developer by virtue of the issuance of the Bonds is the abatement of real estate ad valorem taxes with respect to the Project; and

WHEREAS, the City, County, and School District have agreed to the abatement of certain real estate ad valorem taxes and the Developer has agreed to make payments in lieu of taxes to the School District, the County and the City and to that effect now wish to enter into this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and mutual covenants hereinafter contained, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. The City, the County, the School District, and the Developer hereafter confirm and affirm the accuracy of the Recitals contained above and those contained herein. The Kenton County Property Valuation Administrator (the "PVA") is responsible for establishing assessed values of real estate within Kenton County for the purpose of imposing real estate ad valorem taxes.

(a) Upon the issuance of the Bonds, the Project will be exempt from real estate ad valorem taxes pursuant to the provisions of Section 103.285 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes.

(b) During the term of the Bonds, the Developer will pay to the School District, the County, and the City annual payments in lieu of taxes in accordance with the schedule attached as Exhibit B to this Agreement.

(c) The Developer will make the payments in lieu of taxes provided for in _____ this Agreement by September 30th on an annual basis, commencing the first full tax year after the Bonds are issued.

(d) Upon the earlier of the date on which the Bonds mature or the date on which the Bonds are no longer outstanding, the Developer will pay to the School, the County, the City (and other taxing authorities) ad valorem taxes on the Project at the tax rates established at that time on an annual basis in accordance with the assessments on the Project determined by the PVA.

(e) Developer shall provide City, County, and School District with 60 days-notice of intent to challenge any value assigned to the Property by the PVA. If Developer challenges the value assigned by the PVA for any year, and if that challenge continues without resolution later than September 30th, the Developer shall still make a timely payment to the City, based on the value assigned by the PVA for the previous assessment period. If the Developer wins its challenge and assessment amount is reduced, the School District, County, and City will rebate the difference to the Developer.

(f) Even though title to the Property will be held by the City for the term of the Bonds, for purposes of this Agreement in Lieu of Taxes, the PVA will continue to assess the Real Estate in the future in the same manner as it does with other real estate located in Kenton County, Kentucky, that is not owned by governmental entities.

2. On or before January 1 of the year immediately following the date upon which a Certificate of Occupancy has been issued for the Property, the Developer shall request that the PVA establish a value for the Property (the “Constructed Assessment Date”). Developer shall provide a copy of the request to City simultaneous with the request to the PVA.

3. At least 30 days prior to the Constructed Assessment Date, the Developer will provide the PVA and the City with the American Institute of Architect documents and site plans and any related documents requested by the PVA’s commercial staff to enable the PVA to establish an assessed value of the Property.

4. Other than the ad valorem taxes discussed herein, this Agreement does not affect or apply to any other taxes or fees that may be owed the Developer (or its assignees or tenants) to the City, the County, the School District or other taxing authorities. Developer acknowledges that this Agreement is not inconsistent or will not conflict with the Bond Placement Agreement, the Trust Indenture, the Financing Agreement, or the Lease Agreement executed or to be executed in connection with the Bonds.

5. It is further understood by the parties that the final maturity date of the Bonds shall not exceed twenty (20) years from their date of issuance.

6. All notices sent to the Developer shall be sent to:

5. Modification. This Agreement in in Lieu of Taxes may not be changed orally, but only by an agreement in writing executed by the City, the County, the School District and the Developer.

6. Assignment: This Agreement may not be assigned by either party absent prior written consent of both parties, which shall be appended to this Agreement as an amendment, except to an entity that is formed to develop the Project controlled by the Developer. Developer shall provide the City, the County, and the School District with 45 days advance written notice of Developer's intention to assign any collateral agreements, including without limitation, mortgages and assignments of rents granted to third party lenders and, in the event that such notice is timely made, the City, the County and/or the School District shall consent to such assignment(s) to the extent reasonably practical. In the event that the parties agree to the assignment the Developer shall, as part of the assignment, require that the assignee execute an assumption agreement, assuming all obligations of the Developer under this Agreement. Prior to any effective date of the assignment, Developer shall warrant that it is current on all payments owed to the School District, the County and the City under this Agreement and Developer shall fully pay any arrearages remaining on the PILOTs owed to the School District, the County, and/or the City.

7. Default. In the event of default in payment as required herein to either the City, the County, or the School District, or either, which is not cured by the Developer within thirty (30) days, then and in that event, it is agreed that the PILOT shall become null and void as of the tax year of the default in payment, and that from that point on, the Developer shall pay amounts equal to one hundred (100%) percent of the amount of ad valorem property tax payments that the City, the County, and the School District would have derived from the Project but for the exemption of the Project from ad valorem taxation pursuant to the provisions of Section 103.285 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes. It is further agreed that Developer will pay all costs of collections, including the City's, the County's, and the School District's reasonable attorney fees, in the event of default.

In the event that the Developer defaults on any payment owed under this Agreement, the City, the County, or the School District or either shall notify Developer that it is in default and give Developer thirty (30) days to cure the default. In the event that the default is not cured within thirty (30) days, the School District, the County, or the City or either, shall notify the Developer and the PVA that the property is no longer subject to tax exemption and the full amount of ad valorem taxes owed to the School District, the County, and/or the City shall be assessed, starting in the tax year of the default.

8. Effect of Bankruptcy. In the event that the Developer or its assigns shall file a voluntary action seeking relief under applicable bankruptcy laws, or have an involuntary action filed against it seeking such relief, then and in that event, it is agreed that all payments required by this Agreement shall be treated the same as if there were ad valorem taxes under applicable Kentucky law, giving said payments and obligations preference over all other secured and unsecured creditors.

9. Legally Binding. This Agreement is legally binding upon the parties, the Developer, its officers, affiliates, shareholders successors in interests, employees, and agents, and assigns, and upon the School District, its School Board, Superintendent, officers, employees and agents, and the City, its Board of Commissioners, officers, employees and agents, and upon the County, its Fiscal Court, officers, employees and agents.

10. Governing Law and Jurisdiction. The parties agree that this Agreement is governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. Any action taken by either party to enforce or seek relief from the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall be brought in the Kenton Circuit Court.

11. No Third Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is between the undersigned parties only, and the benefits and obligations hereunder inure only to the undersigned parties, and to the extent set forth in this Agreement. There are no intended nor unintended third party beneficiaries to this Agreement.

PILOT PAYMENT SCHEDULE

The Pilot Payments per calendar year will be the amount of ad valorem taxes which would have been payable with respect to the Property if the Developer held legal title thereto, multiplied by the percentages of such ad valorem taxes (the "Pilot Payment Percentage") for each Taxing District, as follows:

Taxing District	Pilot Percentage
City of Covington	20% for years 1 – 15 100% for years 16 - 20
Kenton County	20%
Covington Independent School District	20%
